Exhibitor agrees to hold harmless West Kentucky Boat and Outdoor Show, Plan-It, all Sponsors, and/or the CFSB Center and their agents, assigns, and employees from and against all claims, damages, lawsuits, and expenses arising out of the performance of the work herein described, including loss of use and any and all other claims in law or in equity, caused in whole or in part by the negligent acts or failure to act of the Exhibitor, his agents, assigns, employees, contractors, sub-contractors, or anyone employed by them or the CFSB Center, their assigns, agents, employees, contractors, or sub-contractors may incur in prosecuting or defending such claims in the event legal representation is required as a result of such claims. The exhibitor is responsible for any damage to the building as a result of setting up and taking down of booths or moving in and out of the building. Any damage reported will be fixed to comply with the CFSB Center and billed to the individual exhibitor. All vendors are required to have Certificates of Insurance.

The contractor agrees to make every effort to allocate the exhibit the booth space indicated in the agreement. However, due to unforeseen circumstances, the contractor reserves the right to allocate space to the Exhibitor of a comparable nature in said Exhibition. The West Kentucky Boat and Outdoor Show reserves the right to deny any exclusivity in a category and the right to deny a booth to any exhibitor for any reason. Subdividing of booth space with other exhibitors is expressly prohibited without prior approval of contractor and approval is not guaranteed. Extra table requests are not guaranteed.

- Exhibitors displaying boats must have their boats plugged prior to and during the event.
- Selling Merchandise: If you do not have a Kentucky Sales Tax Number you must obtain a temporary Vendors Sales Tax Permit. Exhibitors with a Kentucky Sales Tax Number must complete required Department of Revenue paperwork. Contractor will have these available during Show Check-In.
